Atlanta, Ga. - The Lady Panthers (0-3, 0-2 SIAC) diligently enforced their full-court press and played with intensity, but after 40 minutes of battle, CAU fell to the Tuskegee Tigerettes (1-2, 1-0 SIAC) 46-65.

In the first half, the Lady Panthers struggled to connect on their shots, as Tuskegee hit 11 field goals and connected for three 3-pointers. Going into halftime, the Lady Panthers trailed 17-36.

The Tigerettes scored their first points of the second half on a jumper by guard Keyonnia Cook and drive in lay-up by forward Alicia Barnes. The Lady Panthers’ Jasmine Harris returned the favor with a short jumper, easing the Tigerettes lead 40-21. Tuskegee continued to dominate as Tequila Martin drained a 3-pointer minutes into the second half, leaving the Lady Panthers behind 23-43.

The Lady Panthers continued to fight, slashing through the lanes, attempting to draw hard fouls on their defenders. The Tigerettes got into foul trouble mid-way through the second half, giving the Lady Panthers the opportunity to make a comeback at the free-throw line. Wright exploited Tuskegee’s foul woes, connecting on five shots from the charity stripe, finishing the game with a team-high 10 points.

The Lady Panthers next game is Saturday, November 28 at Epps Gymnasium against conference foe Claflin University. Tip-off is 6:00 p.m.
