Clark Atlanta University
Graduate Resource Center

Book Check-Out Form

Student Name: ______________________________________ CAU 900: _________________________

School: ________________________________  Department: __________________________________

Email: _________________________    Telephone: _________________________ Cell: ____________________

Book Title/ISBN:

1. ________________________________________________________________________________

2. ________________________________________________________________________________

3. ________________________________________________________________________________

4. ________________________________________________________________________________

5. ________________________________________________________________________________

Date Checked-Out: _______________________ Due Date: _________________________________

Please Read Carefully:

All financially enrolled CUA graduate and professional students are allowed to check-out any textbook, workbook, study material, and/or magazine/journal provided by the Graduate Lab and Resource Center (GLRC) at no charge. These items must be returned by the indicated due date. By signing below you (the students/borrower) acknowledge that take full responsibility for and replace any lost or damaged items checked out.

Student Signature: __________________________________________________________________

Authorized By: ________________________________  Signature: __________________________

Date Returned: _______________________ All Items Returned: _____YES _____NO

Received By: ______________________________      Signature: ______________________________

Special Comments: __________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________