

Clark Atlanta University SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Chair of Counselor Education

The Department of Counselor Education in the School of Education at Clark Atlanta University is seeking a department chair of vision and purpose with strong evidence of leadership, graduate teaching, leadership, professional service, and research in counselor education, to join the faculty of our counseling program. The position is a full-time 12-month Associate Professor tenure-track position that will remain open until filled.

In addition to running the day-to-day structural operations (scheduling, budgeting, etc.) of the department, the Chair will be required, but not limited to: teach graduate level courses in the Community and School Counseling programs; coordinate the clinical supervision of students in the School Counseling program; evaluate staff and faculty performance; mentor junior counseling faculty; and participate in the shared governance of the School of Education as a member on the unit executive council.

The successful candidate will share our school philosophy that every child should be taught, counseled, and led by competent, committed and caring school personnel and support our institutional priorities and core values. As such, we are seeking someone devoted to student intellectual and ethical development with a healthy commitment to advancing knowledge, discovery and innovation in the field, community sustainability efforts, and the growth and capacity building agenda of the university.

Qualified applicants will possess a doctorate in Counseling/Counselor Education (preferably from a CACREP program), have knowledge of and experience with accreditation and be a Licensed Professional Counselor (or license eligible) and certified School Counselor in the state of Georgia. Evidence of leadership, strong clinical experience, graduate teaching, and research agenda will be essential in the application process. Salary is commensurate with experience.
