

CLARK ATLANTA UNIVERSITY
INSTRUCTOR APPOINTMENT - HISTORY

The Office of the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs is seeking qualified candidates for an Instructor appointment (non tenure-track) to teach history. Teaching duties include four courses per semester. Candidates with a background in African and African American history preferred. Successful candidates are expected to teach the main department survey courses, United States, Africa, and the World (I & II). Ability to teach surveys in United States and African American history is highly desirable. Ph.D. or ABD is preferred and must be from a regionally accredited institution of higher education. Salary and benefits will be commensurate with academic credentials and experience. Clark Atlanta University is a historically black institution (HBCU) with a reputation for quality undergraduate and graduate education and is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS).

Review of applications for this position will begin immediately and will continue to be reviewed until the position is filled and must include each applicant's:

1. Letter of interest;
2. Official transcripts (must be mailed directly from the Registrar of the institution attended to the address shown below);
3. Statement of the applicant's teaching philosophy, and
4. Curriculum vitae.

All applications should be sent to:

Dr. Jeffrey J. Phillips
Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs
Office of the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs
Clark Atlanta University
223 James P. Brawley Drive, SW
Atlanta, GA 30331
Email: jphillips@cau.edu

Clark Atlanta University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer