1. Graduate Education Diversity Internship Program (GEDIP)

The American Evaluation Association welcomes applications for its Graduate Education Diversity Internship Program that provides paid internship and training opportunities for academic year 2009/2010. GEDIP works to engage and support students from groups traditionally under-represented in the field of evaluation. The goals of GEDIP are to: Expand the pool of graduate students of color and from other under-represented groups who have extended their research capacities to evaluation. Stimulate evaluation thinking concerning under-represented communities and culturally responsive evaluation. Deepen the evaluation profession’s capacity to work in racially, ethnically and culturally diverse settings.

Deadlines:
Proposal Submission: July 6, 2009

2. NASA Research Announcement: Research Opportunities in Combustion Science

Proposals are solicited by the Exploration Systems Mission Directorate (ESMD) Advanced Capabilities Division for the following four categories: 1) fundamental studies of material flammability as a function of gravity, flow and orientation, 2) investigations of the relevance of existing flammability test methods for low and partial gravity environments, 3) development and validation of test approaches for assessment of material flammability under microgravity and partial gravity conditions, and 4) quantification of low-gravity gaseous and particulate products of combustion for materials used in the habitable volume of spacecraft developed in the Constellation program.

Deadlines:
Notice of Intent: June 18, 2009
Proposal Submission: August 18, 2009

3. NASA Research Announcement: Research Opportunities for Flight Experiments in Space Life Sciences

This solicits research proposals for space flight experiments in Space Life Sciences. Proposals are restricted to experiments that propose to use plants, insects, nematodes or microbial model specimens. The specific model organisms targeted for use are Arabidopsis thaliana, Brassica rapa, Drosophila melanogaster, Caenorhabditis elegans, bacteria and fungi. NASA will support a limited number of innovative-competitive and multidisciplinary studies selected through this solicitation process. Proposals for purely ground-based research will not be accepted or considered for this NRA. Flight proposals should be supported by a foundation of ground-based data or previous flight data.
