

Murdell McFarlin

Murdell Walker McFarlin is Station Manager for CAU-TV. She has held this position for the past seven years. McFarlin was appointed CAU-TV Station Manager while on faculty at Clark Atlanta University in the Department of Mass Media Arts. During her tenure in this position, the station has earned two national awards for excellence in student-produced daily news programs. Her career experiences college teaching in television production and in television production positions in broadcast and educational television have afforded her many opportunities to provide quality community outreach programs. In 2011 she was selected a member of the Class of 2011 National Faculty of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (NATA) Foundation. Also in 2011, she was elected President-Elect of AHECTA, the Assn. of Higher Education College Television Administrators. McFarlin holds an Ed.S. Degree in Educational Leadership from Clemson University.