ATLANTA (Sept. 28, 2011) – More than 10,000 alumni, parents, students, community leaders and friends of Clark Atlanta University (CAU) will gather on the campus for a weeklong homecoming extravaganza Oct. 2-9.

Under the theme “Grandeur Cirque du CAU,” a plethora of events and activities will be held. This includes chapel services, forums, fashion and comedy shows, musical concerts, the coronation of Miss CAU, a homecoming parade and the football game against Miles College.

CAU President Carlton E. Brown said, “Homecoming is such an important annual gathering for the CAU family. It helps to reenergize the focus on our mission, remember our proud past and chart our future. It’s a reunion that underscores the importance of our work and the crucial role of the historically black college and university (HBCU) in American higher education.”
