CLARK ATLANTA UNIVERSITY OFFERS NEW MINI-MESTER PROGRAM ON CARIBBEAN CULTURE IN ST. CROIX, VIRGIN ISLANDS IN DECEMBER

ATLANTA (Nov. 5, 2010) — Clark Atlanta University will offer a three-week (mini-mester) program on Caribbean media and culture, beginning Dec. 15, in St. Croix, Virgin Islands.

The three-hour credit program is open to all sophomores, juniors and seniors with at least a 2.5 GPA who are enrolled in the Atlanta University Center schools. The program fee is $3,000 and includes lodging, tuition, meals, lectures and pre-selected field trips and site visits. No passport is required, since the U.S. Virgin Islands is a U.S. territory.

Dr. Alice E. Stephens, program director and associate professor in the Department of Mass Media Arts at CAU, said, “This is an exciting and enriching opportunity for a most memorable holiday, immersed in the culture of the Caribbean. The value of such an experience is life-long.”

Interested students should or e-mail to astephen@cau.edu for details and an application.
