A special limited engagement
This project was incubated and coordinated through the Ashé Cultural Arts Center and V-Day with Eve Ensler, playwright of The Vagina Monologues.

Directed by Kenny Leon

Experience New Orleans before, during and after our nation’s worst natural disaster, Hurricane Katrina, through the stories of women who lived to tell about it. An affirmation of their own strength through raw, lyrical, soulful stories of how they lived through the flood with grace, rage, and great resiliency punctuated by a flair for story telling, humor and music that comes from being New Orleanian. (Contains strong language.)

Featuring Jasmine Guy, Shirley Knight, and Kerry Washington.

New Orleans Matinee
Wednesday, November 12, 2008, 1:00 p.m.*
Special Price to Honor New Orleanians - $10 plus tax/handling

14th Street Playhouse, 173 14th Street, Atlanta, Georgia 30309
Box Office: 404-733-5000 / www.TrueColorsTheatreCompany.com

*Swimming Upstream runs November 5 – 16, 2008. Special Price available for New Orleans Matinee only. Regular prices ($35-$50) apply to all other performances. Discounts cannot be combined.