By: Zena Lewis, CAU Sports Information

After a two-game skid, the Clark Atlanta University (CAU) Men's Basketball Team (13-13, 12-9) jumped back on pace, shooting 47 percent from the field to defeat Kentucky State University (KSU), 78-71.

Five Panthers tabbed double digits, and team defense in the last minutes of the game became a critical factor as CAU avenged an early season loss to the Thorobreds (12-14, 11-10).

Coshune Bingham shot 8 of 11 to lead all scorers with a season-high 19 points. Najee Lane and Ale Burt added 12 points apiece, while Kevin Johnson and Jelani Heath both contributed 11 to the scoring frenzy.

In the first half, the Panthers shot 43 percent from the field while holding KSU to 39 percent from the floor. Bingham and Heath both scored eight points to help the Panthers take the lead at the half, 28 – 27.

CAU opened the second half with scoring spurts that kindled great shooting from the field. The Panthers took advantage, shooting 50 percent from the floor and 83 percent from the free-throw stripe. Johnson, who was left scoreless in the first half, scored all his 11 points during the game's last minutes. Bingham played the go-to role matching Johnson with 11 of his own.

The Panthers will face Lane College next in the season finale.
