Lady Panthers Slay Lady Dragons for Sixth Straight Win

The impressive win streak of the Lady Panthers of Clark Atlanta University (CAU) was extended to six straight with a 63-53 win over the Lady Dragons of Lane College tonight in the Epps Gymnasium. The half dozen consecutive wins is the longest winning streak for Head Coach Vanessa Moore since taking over the program six years ago.

The Lady Panthers got off to a solid start in this Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SIAC) matchup with Lane College. CAU took advantage of an 11 of 27 (40%) shooting performance in the first half to build a 28-24 halftime lead. The Lady Dragons were 10 of 31 (32%) in first-half field goals.

The shooting percentage of the Lady Panthers increased after the intermission while the Lady Dragons took a dip. CAU was 15 of 29 (51%) in the second half while Lane's percentage dropped to 29% (11 of 37). The Lady Panthers outscored the Lady Dragons in the second half, 35-29.

Shantrell Moss and Danielle Walker led the Lady Panthers in the conference win. Moss finished with 18 points and five rebounds, while Walker contributed 11 points and six rebounds.

The Lady Panthers are currently in second place in the SIAC with a 10-4 overall record and a conference mark of 6-2.
