Clark Atlanta University
Department of Modern Foreign Languages
Instructor/Assistant Professor of Spanish (2 Positions)

The School of Arts and Science of Clark Atlanta University invites nominations and applications for one of two Instructor/Assistant Professor of Spanish positions in the Department of Modern Foreign Languages. The successful applicants are required to teach undergraduate and graduate courses, engage in scholarship or creative research activities, and provide service to the University. Mentoring of undergraduate and graduate students is expected.

Candidates for these positions must have experience in teaching both undergraduate and graduate courses. Candidates should have knowledge of alternative ways of delivering instruction, especially using collaborative learning, active learning, and Web CT. Candidates must have ability to develop an outcomes-based curricula and work collegially to connect discipline expertise into the whole curriculum.

Qualifications
Candidate is required to have earned a Ph.D. in Spanish, but a Master’s Degree will be considered. One full year of teaching experience at the university level is required. Positions will be available August 2006.

Application Procedure
Individuals seeking consideration for these positions should submit their application immediately. Review of applications will continue until the positions are filled. Candidates should provide a cover letter of interest, a current curriculum vita, an official transcript, and a list of references to:

Dr. Scott Shinabargar
Acting Department Chair
Modern Foreign Languages
Clark Atlanta University
223 James P. Brawley Dr., SW
Atlanta, GA 30314-4391
404-880-8546