Clark Atlanta University
Department of Modern Foreign Languages
Instructor/Assistant Professor of Chinese

The School of Arts and Science of Clark Atlanta University invites nominations and applications for an Instructor/Assistant Professor of Chinese position in the Department of Modern Foreign Languages. The successful applicant is required to teach courses in Beginning and Intermediate Chinese I and II, as a part-time faculty member.

The candidate for this position must have experience in teaching undergraduate students. Candidates should have knowledge of alternative ways of delivering instruction, especially using collaborative learning, active learning, and Web CT. Candidates must have ability to develop an outcomes-based curricula and work collegially to connect discipline expertise into the whole curriculum.

Qualifications
Candidate is required to have earned a Doctorate or Master’s Degree in Chinese from an accredited institution; or Master’s Degree in a related area with 18 hours of coursework in Chinese at the graduate level. One full year of teaching experience at the university level is required. Position available August 2006

Application Procedure
Individuals seeking consideration for this position should submit their application immediately. Review of applications will continue until the position is filled. Candidates should provide a cover letter of interest, a current curriculum vita, an official transcript, and a list of references to:

Dr. Scott Shinabargar
Acting Department Chair
Modern Foreign Languages
Clark Atlanta University
223 James P. Brawley Dr., SW
Atlanta, GA 30314-4391
404-880-8546