

Clark Atlanta University
Chairperson/Associate Professor
Mass Media Arts
Division of Communication Arts
Affiliate of the United Methodist Church

The Division of Communication Arts at Clark Atlanta University seeks candidates for the position of Chairperson/Associate Professor of the Department of Mass Media Arts. One of two academic units within the Division of Communication Arts, the Mass Media Arts Department has more than 800 students in three areas of concentration (Journalism, Radio/TV/Film, Public Relations).

Candidates must hold a Ph.D. degree in Mass Communications or a closely related field, and possess relevant administrative experience and exceptional management qualifications to lead a major academic department. A strong record of teaching and scholarship is required.

The Mass Media Arts Department is seeking accreditation from the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (ACEJMC). The ideal candidate should possess a working knowledge of ACEJMC accreditation standards and requirements, a demonstrated ability to lead the process of preparation for accreditation, and an active record of affiliation with ACEJMC and related professional associations.

About the University:

Clark Atlanta University is situated in the metropolitan, media-rich state's capital of Atlanta. The university has nearly 5,000 students. The Department of Mass Media Arts, one of two academic units within the Division of Communication Arts, has more than 800 students in three areas of concentration (Journalism, Radio/TV/Film, Public Relations). In addition to the student-run FM station, the Division consists of an NPR radio station and a cable-access television station, and provides direct advisement to the Panther Newspaper. Also, the Digital Teleproduction Laboratory provides a stellar technology-enhanced learning environment for students.

Candidates should submit a letter of interest establishing qualifications for the position, current curriculum vitae, official transcripts, and three letters of recommendation before March 31, 2008, to:
