IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Clark Atlanta Panthers Ink 17 on National Signing Day

ATLANTA, GA – (February 7, 2008) Clark Atlanta University Head Football Coach Ted Bahhur announced the 2008 recruiting class. According to Coach Bahhur, “We are pleased with the quality of student-athletes that we were able to sign this year. Each of the young men who have committed to play for us represents the caliber of student, athlete, and person that we want to attract and develop at Clark Atlanta. The outreach effort of the coaching staff was tremendous, and these players will instantly address our on-field needs.”

The class of 17 recruits is made up of 10 high school players who signed National Letters of Intent; six junior college transfers; and one division I transfer. Of the 10 high school recruits, six are graduates from high schools in the metropolitan Atlanta area.
