Clark Atlanta Student Danielle Stubbs Selected Meredith-Cronkite Fellow

On the news set of the CBS-TV affiliate in Phoenix, Danielle Stubbs, a senior mass media arts major from Nassau, Bahamas, takes a break from the news. Stubbs was selected as one of only eight to participate last month in a week-long fellowship program for top minority broadcast journalism students, sponsored by the Meredith Corp. and the Cronkite School. She received a $2,000 stipend. CAU was one of only two HBCUs represented in the program this year.
