REV. JOSEPH E. LOWERY AND ARETHA FRANKLIN RECEIVE PRESIDENTIAL CITATIONS FROM CLARK ATLANTA UNIVERSITY

After a recent performance by Aretha Franklin at Atlanta's Fox Theatre, the Rev. Joseph E. Lowery and Franklin (front center) receive Presidential Citations for their legacies in human rights. While the Lowery family looks on, the presentation was made by Aristide Collins (right), vice president for Institutional Advancement and University Relations at CAU, on behalf of CAU President Walter D. Broadnax. The occasion was Lowery's 86th birthday, which also celebrated the work of The Joseph E. Lowery Institute For Justice & Human Rights at Clark Atlanta University.
