METROPOINTE LOFTS ESTABLISHES MEMORIAL FUND FOR MOREHOUSE STUDENT ANTHONY LEWIS

For Immediate Release

Atlanta (February 22, 2008) – Clark Atlanta University would like to extend heartfelt condolences to the Morehouse College Community and the family of Morehouse student Anthony Lewis. According to staff members of the Clark Atlanta University Division of Enrollment Services and Student Affairs, MetroPointe Lofts, which houses a number of CAU students, is setting up a memorial fund for the family of the deceased Morehouse student. Lewis, a senior at Morehouse, passed away on Monday, February 18, 2008, in his apartment due to a ruptured aneurysm.

Those wishing to make contributions to the fund, which has been established in lieu of flowers, may do so by visiting the MetroPointe Lofts leasing office where donations will be accepted. Students may also place a donation in the rent drop box at MetroPointe Lofts by labeling an envelope as “The Anthony Lewis Fund.” Checks should be made payable to Pamela Lewis (Lewis’ mother).

Lewis’ funeral will be held at Robson & Brown Funeral Home, 396 Gates Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, 11216 on Tuesday, February 26. The time has not been set.

Those wishing additional information are asked to call MetroPointe’s office at 404-897-1003.
