

News Brief

Office of Marketing and Communications

April 8, 2008

Contact: Larry Calhoun
(404) 880-6040
lcalhoun@cau.edu

CLARK ATLANTA UNIVERSITY TRUSTEE RICHARD ANDERSON NAMED EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF GEORGIA REGIONAL TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY

CAU Trustee Richard A. Anderson was recently elected executive director of the Georgia Regional Transportation Authority (GRTA) by the GRTA Board of Directors. Anderson, a BellSouth and AT&T Executive and current member of the GRTA Board, was recommended for the position by Governor Perdue.

CAU President Walter D. Broadnax said, “Dick Anderson’s impressive track record continues to make him an exemplary board member at CAU. As former group president of AT&T Georgia, he helped to secure a $1 million grant for graduate scholarships in our School of Business.”

(more)

Page 2

Anderson graduated magna cum laude with his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing in 1980 and his Master of Business Administration degree in 1981 from Murray State University. He was elected the MSU Outstanding Alumni in 1994.

He is very involved in the local community and also serves on the boards of Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce – 2007 Chairman, Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta, Camp Twin Lakes, and Chick-fil-A Bowl. In addition, Anderson led Atlanta’s bid for Super Bowl 2009.

###