

School of Education Graduate

Anthony Pinder, Ed. D.
2012 - Ed.D., Educational Leadership

"The Educational Leadership Program made me rethink my own assumptions about leadership, and gave me new frameworks for how I might better facilitate organizational change. It was truly a transformational experience. As a result, I acquired the sophisticated skill set, content expertise and confidence to become a more effective partner in my institution's change agenda. The program was a defining moment for my future."

Dr. Pinder's Recent Accomplishments:

Certificate, Institute for Management and Leadership in Education, Graduate School of Education, Harvard University (June 2013)

National Faculty Advisor of the Year, Sigma Iota Rho Honor Society for International Studies, University of Pennsylvania (2013)

Faculty Appointment - Assistant Professor of Education (School of Education - Georgia Gwinnett College)
