

School of Education Graduate

Dhanfu Elston

2004 – M.A., Educational Leadership

"The Clark Atlanta University Educational Leadership program provided me with the support and encouragement to be a critical-thinking change agent in the field of higher education. Working with and learning from a community of scholars led me to understand that my personal and professional passions could be pursued within the umbrella of culturally relevant pedagogy."

Mr. Elson's Recent Accomplishments:

- Appointed Executive Director of Student Success and Transition at Purdue University Calumet (Hammond, Indiana)
 - Co-Chairperson Elect of the NASPA – Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education African American Knowledge Community (term 2014-2016)
 - Recipient of the NASPA Research & Assessment Grant for scholarship in the area of intercultural relations and student engagement
 - 2012 Recipient of the Georgia State University Martin L. King, Jr. Torch of Peace Award for the promotion of intercultural relations and social justice
-