1. Innovation and Discovery

   We are a community educators bound by our passion for teaching, research and scholarship. We are dedicated to making significant contributions to the knowledge of humankind through the diverse talent and skills of our students, researchers, faculty and staff.

2. Integrity

   We are an educational community that predicates our work and relationships on high moral character and sound ethical principles and practices.

3. Pursuit of Excellence

   We are committed to continuous pursuit of excellence in all of our endeavors to best serve our stakeholders, inclusive of our processes and practices.

4. Social Responsibility

   We are an educational community that believes in equality, justice, civic engagement, and personal and professional accountability.

5. Student-centeredness

   We embrace a student-centered ethos which emphasizes the delivery of high quality and reliable support services that are responsive to the diverse backgrounds which students bring to the institutions. As a student-centered environment it is incumbent upon us to be inclusive – recognizing and respecting all forms of human diversity – and a cohesive campus community in our day-to-day interactions.

6. Respect

   We are a community that recognizes the interdependence of all individuals and fully embrace and support diversity of thought, culture, ideas, experiences, and talents of people. While we are considerate of the feelings of others and treat all individuals equally with dignity and sensitivity, we acknowledge the value of our workplace property, protocol, and authority and are committed to the awareness, conservation, and care of our work and natural environment.
