Clark Atlanta University (CAU) is a comprehensive, private, urban coeducational institution of higher education with a predominantly African-American heritage. It offers undergraduate, graduate and professional degrees as well as certificate programs to students of diverse racial, ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds. It was formed by the consolidation of Atlanta University, which offered only graduate degrees, and Clark College, a four-year undergraduate institution oriented to the liberal arts.

Position: Two (2) Tenure-track

The Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice, Clark Atlanta University invites applications for two positions:

1. Tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level in the areas of Criminology/Criminal Justice.
2. Tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level – areas of specialization open.

Successful candidates will have a demonstrated record of excellence in teaching and research with the potential for securing external funding. Duties will include teaching graduate and undergraduate courses.

Minimum Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Sociology or Criminal Justice. ABD’s will be considered but must have the doctorate by the time of appointment.

Candidates should submit a letter of interest describing their research and teaching activities, a current curriculum vita, examples of their publications and transcripts.

Clark Atlanta University
C/O Human Resources Department
223 James P. Brawley Drive S.W.
Atlanta, GA  30314-4391

Application credentials may also be sent via email to jobs@cau.edu.

Screening for the position will continue until the position is filled. Official transcripts are required at the time of employment.