Clark Atlanta University (CAU) is a comprehensive, private, urban coeducational institution of higher education with a predominantly African-American heritage. It offers undergraduate, graduate and professional degrees as well as certificate programs to students of diverse racial, ethnic and socioeconomic backgrounds. It was formed by the consolidation of Atlanta University, which offered only graduate degrees, and Clark College, a four-year undergraduate institution oriented to the liberal arts.

Position: Chairperson/Associate Professor

The Division of Social Sciences at Clark Atlanta University seeks candidates for the position of Chairperson/Associate Professor of the Department of Psychology.

The successful candidate should have the academic qualification and credentials to be appointed an Associate Professor or Full Professor. Some administrative experience is preferred. Preference will be given to candidates who have experience acquiring extramural grant funding. The program offers a Bachelor’s degree in psychology and innovative leadership is paramount to move toward a Center (e.g., Center for Behavioral Analysis) and/or graduate program in a specialty area.

The position start date is August 1, 2013, and applications will be reviewed until the position is filled. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience. Clark Atlanta University values diversity and actively seeks to recruit talented students, faculty and staff from diverse backgrounds.

Candidates should submit a letter of interest (including a statement of administrative/leadership philosophy), curriculum vitae, reprints of recent publications and three letters of reference and all official graduate and undergraduate transcripts to the following address:

Clark Atlanta University
C/O Human Resources Department
223 James P. Brawley Drive S.W.
Atlanta, GA 30314-4391

Application credentials may also be sent via email to jobs@cau.edu.

Review of applications will continue until the position is filled. CAU is an equal opportunity employer. Specific questions relating to the position may be directed to Dr. Diane Plummer, Interim Chair, Department of Psychology at dplummer@cau.edu.

September 2012