The School of Business Administration has been accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) since 1974. The Department has six full-time faculty and serves over 1,000 students in the School of Business Administration.

Tenure Track Faculty Positions in Decision Science

The Department of Decision Science at Clark Atlanta University is seeking two assistant or associate tenure-track teachers/scholars to teach courses in Decision Science beginning in fall 2006. Clark Atlanta University is a private, coeducational institution of higher education with a predominantly African-American heritage. Applicants must have an interest in integrating technology into the curriculum for undergraduate and graduate courses in the following areas: Management Information Systems (MIS), Production Operations Management, Statistics, and Supply Chain Management.

The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Decision Science or related area with a record of scholarly research and effective teaching and must be academically qualified by AACSB standards by the time of employment. An interest in and knowledge of enterprise resource planning systems such as SAP is highly desirable. A completed application will consist of a letter of interest, a curriculum vita, the names and telephone numbers of at least 3 references with addresses, and an official transcript. An on-campus presentation will be required of all finalists.

The position will continue to be open until filled. A completed application should be sent to: Dr. Young Kim, Chair, Search Committee, School of Business Administration, Clark Atlanta University, 223 James P. Brawley Drive, Atlanta, GA 30314, (404) 880-8450; Email: ykim@cau.edu.

Tenure Track Faculty Position in Management

The Department of Management at Clark Atlanta University is seeking one assistant or associate tenure-track teacher/scholar to teach courses in Management beginning in fall 2006. Clark Atlanta University is a private, coeducational institution of higher education with a predominantly African-American heritage. The School of Business Administration has been accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) since 1974. The Department has 6 full-time faculty and serves over 1000 students in the School of Business Administration. Applicants must have an interest in integrating technology into the curriculum for undergraduate and graduate courses in the following areas: Human Resources Management, International Business, Labor Relations and Principles of Management.

The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Management, an active research agenda, a record of effective teaching, and must be academically qualified by AACSB standards by the time of employment. A completed application will consist of a letter of interest, a curriculum vita, the names and telephone numbers of at least 3 references with addresses, and an official transcript. An on-campus presentation will be required of all finalists.

The position will continue to be open until filled. A complete application should be sent to: Dr.Evelyn Winston-Dadzie, Chair, Search Committee, School of Business Administration, Clark Atlanta University, 223 James P. Brawley Drive, Atlanta, GA 30314, (404) 880-8139; Email: edadzie@cau.edu.

Clark Atlanta University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer