Dear Clark Atlanta University Family,

During this Thanksgiving season, I have been pondering about the many things for which I am grateful. With sincerity and gratitude, I am thankful to all of you. We have transitioned back to campus this fall, and it has been a pleasure to see one another on a daily basis.

I am thankful to have the opportunity to engage with our student scholars, who inspire me with their hunger and thirst for knowledge and their innovative perspectives about the world in which we live. I am thankful to work with a committed and talented group of faculty and staff who continue to go the extra mile in everything you do. I appreciate how you tirelessly prepare our students for success in and outside the classroom as well as through the civic, cultural, and social activities that prepare our scholars for their prospective futures.

I am thankful for every member of the Board of Trustees and the Clark Atlanta University alumni and your ongoing support of the mission and vision of this entire University through your generosity, prayers, and love.

All of you make Clark Atlanta University an exceptional place, and for that, I am thankful. Without your dedication, inspiration, and high standards, we would not be the prosperous university we are.

From our home to yours, I wish you an abundant, joyful, and Happy Thanksgiving well spent with family, friends, love, and good food. May God's richest blessings be bestowed on each of you.

Yours in Service,
