CLARK ATLANTA UNIVERSITY

STRATEGIC PLAN
2018-2023
Message from the President

It is an honor to introduce Clark Atlanta University’s 2018 – 2023 Strategic Plan, which will guide the University for the next five years and beyond. Today’s students bring a mindset that forces all higher education institutions to improve and enhance what is offered and how they operate. A thorough examination of the effectiveness of the University’s academic degree programs, educational support services, facilities, and technology, directed the development of the new plan’s goals and strategies, when achieved, would strengthen CAU’s commitment to transforming the lives of students by elevating them, educating them, and making their voices heard.

This strategic plan includes new elements to the University’s Guiding Statements including CAU’s history and heritage. It reflects and acknowledges how CAU’s founding would not have been made possible without the historic and innovative marriage in 1988 of its parent institutions, Atlanta University (founded in 1865) and Clark College (founded in 1869).

CAU’s mission is and always has been to transform students’ lives by preparing them to address the challenges of our time and “Think Forward” so that our work affords them a competitive advantage in the global marketplace 5, 10, even 25 years from now. In keeping with our guiding elements and mission, the strategic plan focuses on six strategic goals—Enrollment and Student Success; Academic Planning; Research and Creative Activity; Fundraising, Marketing, and Branding; Institutional Effectiveness; and Facilities, Technology, and Real Estate.

CAU prides itself with its core values of being People-Centric; Research-Focused, Innovative and Creative; Inclusive and Accountable; Diverse and Global; Excellence; and Student-Centered.

As we move forward, it will be extremely vital to include the mission, vision, guiding principles, core values, and goals of the strategic plan into planning at every level in the University. The ongoing integrated planning process will be critical in accomplishing the Plan’s over-arching goal of long-term health and sustainability and actualizing our strategic vision of being recognized internationally as a leading research institution of higher education and learning.

I want to thank everyone who engaged in this strategic planning process, influencing the substance of this plan, and assisting in the execution of a dynamic blueprint for the future. Together, we will continue to be “One Exceptional University”.

Sincerely,

HISTORY AND HERITAGE

Leveraging its distinctive and historic legacies of W.E.B. Du Bois and Bishop Davis W. Clark, Clark Atlanta University (CAU) provides an educational experience of exceptional quality at the undergraduate, graduate, and professional levels. Over its 150-year history, Clark Atlanta University has been a cradle of educational opportunity and a driver of learning.

Clark Atlanta University is the result of the consolidation of two historically significant institutions: Clark College, and Atlanta University. Clark College was founded in 1869 by the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which later would become the United Methodist Church and the nation's first private liberal arts institution to award baccalaureate degrees to African Americans. Atlanta University was founded in 1865, and was the nation's first graduate-level institution for African Americans. In 1957, the controlling boards of six institutions (Atlanta University, Clark College, Morehouse College, Morris Brown College, Spelman College and Gammon Theological Seminary) ratified new articles of affiliation to create the Atlanta University Center (AUC), the most prevalent consortium of African-American private institutions of higher education in the United States. Connected by a common heritage, a shared set of commitments focused on providing quality education to African Americans, the historic consolidation brought together Clark College and Atlanta University to create “One Exceptional University” in 1988.

MISSION

Building on its social justice history and heritage, Clark Atlanta University is a culturally diverse, research-intensive, liberal arts institution that prepares and transforms the lives of students. CAU is located in the heart of Atlanta which is the epicenter of the Civil Rights Movement and modern center of emerging technologies and innovation. Ignited by its history, CAU is committed to delivering education that is accessible, relevant, and transformative.

Approved by the Board of Trustees, May 17, 2019

Approved by the Board of Trustees, May 17, 2019
Building the foundation of CAU’s 2018-2023 Strategic Plan began in October 2017 at the Board of Trustees Retreat. During the retreat, McKinsey & Company consultant firm conducted a breakout brainstorming session with the primary goal to identify the University's internal and external areas of Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats (SWOT).

Based on the shared perspectives and values gathered from CAU's Board of Trustees, students, faculty and staff, alumni, and community business leaders, the University Strategic Plan Steering Committee developed six strategic goals to fulfill the University's purpose and guide CAU's path toward becoming a leading research university. Over 500 internal and external campus stakeholders guided the development of the 2018-2023 Strategic Plan.

The activities and timeline outlined below, highlight steps the University took to develop the new Strategic Plan along with the guidance from key campus stakeholders.

- October 2017: A focus group was conducted: Alumni Conversations on the Future of Clark Atlanta University. Fifteen alumni provided their opinions and perspectives of CAU's future position, and the enhancement of student academic and career success.

- January 2018: CAU held its 2018 Spring Opening Institute: Campus Town Hall Meeting. During the Institute, 297 faculty and staff were asked to participate in a small group discussion activity. The primary purpose of the activity was designed to capture faculty and staff's ideas, opinions, and beliefs of CAU's ideal future and strategic position.

- January 2018: The President hosted the Community and Business Leaders Forum. There were 16 members who participated in the interactive discussion regarding CAU's growth and impact on industry.

- January 2018: A Student Town Hall Meeting was held and there were 100 undergraduates and six graduates to participate. The primary purpose of this meeting was to engage and gather critical information from students that can be utilized in the University’s development of the Strategic Plan.

The execution phase of the 2018-2023 Strategic Plan requires budget management decisions to ensure there is alignment and prioritization between revenues and expenditures on an annual basis. Thus, the planning process has a direct impact on the University's budgeting and assessment process where each academic and administrative division ties budget to strategic goals, assessment, and results. To streamline our budget management decisions, the University uses a comprehensive Governance structure, led by the Chief Financial Officer (CFO), as an internal control that decentralizes decisions and financial authority/responsibility for each academic and administrative division. Establishing an effective Governance allows the University to:

- Advance its strategic priorities in align with the approved annual budget and 5-year Strategic Plan
- Prioritize the allocation of limited resources (time, people, funding, and facilities)
- Apply a consistent and robust process for collective decision-making
- Encourage innovation and growth
- Conduct post analysis of all restricted/unrestricted funded projects, to assess the overall effectiveness of newly implemented programs, services, and/or tools

While the Board of Trustees is ultimately responsible for authorizing or appropriating the University's funds to be expended, CAU's Governance process acts as the "Gate-Keeper" to ensure the budget process is inclusive, fully documented, and most importantly, linked to the University's needs based on the Strategic Plan and ensures that adequate resources exist to meet those needs and strategic goals also includes a budget that provides cost estimates for implementing each of the six strategic goals, along with an implementation timeline.
