CAU Nation,

We are heartbroken over recent events and our prayers go out to all who have been impacted. While we are stunned and grieving, it is important to note the role that each of you play, as alumni, in helping our University get through this difficult time.

The University often looks to our alumni for support and guidance during times of crisis. As we all work to meet the challenges ahead, we ask our alumni and friends to help us with the following:

- With both local and national attention focused on us in light of this incident, it is critical that the University communicates with one voice. Please be respectful of the families involved with the information you share in person and on social media.
- Please feel free to add your voice with ours in expressing condolences to the families affected by this senseless act of violence. as we continue to encourage and support our students in the challenging days ahead.
- In that regard, we welcome you to join us tomorrow for Chapel Service at 10:45 a.m. at the Davage Auditorium and a candlelight vigil at 6 p.m. at the CAU President's Parking Lot.

Though we are devastated by this tragedy, we must remember who are. WE ARE CAU and we will find a way to make it through this together.

Together we will find a way,
