Increasing the AA STEM Teacher Workforce w/Community Coaching, Mentoring & Support

NSF Funded Project

Presented by Sean Warner, Professor EDL

9.9.22
Project Overview

COLLABORATION
- Clark Atlanta University
- Clayton County Public Schools
- Genesis Innovation Academy
- Atlanta Algebra Project & Young People’s Project

MAT MATH DEGREE PROGRAM
- 14-Month Hybrid Online Accelerated Program
- Two cohorts: Year 1 (2023) Cohort & Year 2 (2024)
  - Year 1: Eight candidates & Year 2: Eleven candidates
- Full tuition + $12000 stipend/salary supplement (funded by the NSF)
Four Year Teaching Commitment

- Teaching Fellows (TFs) will be hired by the school/school district and placed in the fall.

- Upon completion of the degree the TF will remain at their school, minimally, for four (4) years.

- TFs will be paid a $12,000 salary supplement on top of their base teacher salary for four (4) years.
Recruitment & Selection

RECRUIT: Social Media Marketing
- Consultant + CCPS Media Manager + Graduate Assistants
- Weekly Information sessions

SELECT: Candidate Pool of Teaching Fellows (TFs)
- Candidate pool will be interviewed by the 2nd week of December (or sooner)
- Final decisions about the first cohort of 8 will be made in early Spring 2023
Project Personnel

- PI: Sean Warner, CAU
- Co-PI: Jacquita Henderson, CAU
- Co-PI: Valerie Bennett, CAU
- Co-PI: Hiu Wu, CAU
- Co-PI: Tonya Clarke, CCPS
- Project Manager/Budget Analyst: Chasdity Harris, CAU
- Wellbeing Consultant & Coach: Jiojet Wesley
- Graduate Assistants: Pershia Shahin-Jafari & Camille Matthew, CAU
- Other Personnel: School Deans and Department Chairs, CAU Admissions, Project Evaluator, Teacher Mentors, APYPP Math Literacy Coaches, CCPS Social Media Manager & Social Media Marketer
Project Management

Project Management Software

- Dashboards
- Work plan and Timelines

Monthly Updates & Reporting
Contact: Sean Warner

swarner@cau.edu
404-281-8811