The following services are now available via Single-Sign-On to the National Student Clearinghouse Student Self-Service Website

- Printing a Proof or Verification of Enrollment, which can be mailed by the student to a health insurer, housing provider, or other organization needing a proof of enrollment.
- Viewing the electronic notifications and deferment forms that have been sent to the student's lenders.
- Viewing a list of the student's lenders, and real-time student loan information detail (such as outstanding principal balance, next payment due date, etc.) that some lenders provide.
- Viewing the student's enrollment information held on file by the National Student Loan Clearinghouse (e.g., enrollment information provided by the school.) Also, the student can find out when the school is scheduled to send in their next enrollment update transmission.
- Viewing enrollment information that has been sent to the student's credit card providers, health insurers, student housing providers and other organizations, either as requested by the student, or as requested by the service provider with the consent of the student.
