

CAU WAY MAKER:

MRS. KIMBERLY MCLURKIN-HARRIS

What is your relationship with CAU?

I graduated from Clark College (Clark Atlanta University) with a B.A. in History Education. Presently, I am the Historian and Treasurer for the C.A.U.A.A., Washington, D.C. - Metro Chapter.

Whom or what was your motivation for creating a scholarship at CAU?

Rosemary Medley and Jean West Lewis motivated me to start an endowed scholarship. Their commitment to C.A.U. inspired me to start a scholarship to support students who needed assistance to graduate. As a student at Clark

HBCU college recruiting fair in MD.

College, there were many individuals who supported my academic endeavors, and I wanted to thank them by paying it forward to the next generation.

What do you hope to accomplish through your scholarship?

My goal is to assist students so that they will graduate and make positive contributions to society and Clark Atlanta University.

Mrs. Kimberly McLurkin -Harris
Clark College Class of 1982

What word of advice would you share with current or incoming CAU students?

Make the most of your years at Clark Atlanta and create networks and friends that will last a lifetime. Remember and revere our mottos "Culture for Service" and "I'll Find A Way or Make One".