

CAU AT-A-GLANCE

Fall 2024

Clark Atlanta University (CAU), formed in 1988 as a result of the consolidation of two independent historically black institutions — Atlanta University (1865) and Clark College (1869), is a United Methodist Church-related, private, coeducational, residential, and comprehensive urban research university. The University, the largest of the 37-member UNCF colleges, offers undergraduate, graduate and professional, and non-degree certificate programs.

CAU is classified by Carnegie as R2: Doctoral Universities – Higher Research Activity and the only private, independent graduate research institution in the HBCU community, and the only HBCU member of the Georgia Research Alliance. Clark Atlanta University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, master's, educational specialist, and doctoral degrees. Questions about the accreditation of Clark Atlanta University may be directed in writing to the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097, by calling (404) 679-4500, or by using information available on SACSCOC's website (www.sacscoc.org).

CAU is also accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International); the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) now under Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) and the Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC); the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP); the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE); the Network of Schools of Public Policy, Affairs, and Administration (NASPAA); and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Division II. CAU is authorized by Georgia Nonpublic Postsecondary Education Commission (GNPEC) to operate in the state of Georgia. The University is approved for listing as a United Methodist Church-affiliated University by the University Senate General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church.
